GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS

Graduate Scholarships

Double Husky Scholarship

The Double Husky Scholarship, available to alumni who have graduated with a Northeastern University degree, provides a tuition discount of up to 25 percent on eligible graduate degree or certificate program.

Parent and Family Scholarship

Available to parents and siblings of full-time Undergraduate Day students, the Parent and Family Scholarship provides a tuition discount of 25 percent on more than 110 eligible graduate programs.

Full Circle Scholarship

The Full Circle Scholarship offers a 25 percent tuition discount on more than 80 graduate programs for eligible students. The Full Circle Scholarship is available for graduate applicants who demonstrate Northeastern University's values of experiential and global learning and who are currently involved in or have completed a term of service with one of the following organizations:

- Peace Corps
- AmeriCorps
- Teach for America
- English Language Learners (ELL)—1 year of teaching experience abroad

New, incoming students are eligible to apply for the Full Circle Scholarship. Currently enrolled Northeastern University students are not eligible at this time.

For additional information regarding the Full Circle Scholarship, including eligible programs, please visit the Graduate Programs website.

Merit Scholarships

Students in graduate programs may also be considered for available merit-based scholarships through their application for admission as well as available scholarship opportunities through their department or college. Please note that scholarship eligibility criteria may vary depending on the scholarship and the program or college. To be considered for merit-based scholarships through your college or program, you must submit your application for admission by the applicable deadline date.

If you have questions regarding merit-based scholarships for graduate programs please contact the department, college, or school to which you are applying to or are currently enrolled.
